Reborn in BAPTISM through water and the Holy Spirit: HALLIE WHELAN.

United last week in the Sacrament of MARRIAGE:

CHERISH & JOHN; LOUISE & GERARD

We pray for the happy repose of the soul of ANN CLEARY, Clongowney, Mullingar
(mother of David Cleary, Rathgarrett) who died last week. May she rest in peace.

“Beannacht Dé ar an obair agus ar an lucht oibre” - a nice greeting for these weeks of productivity in our homes, parish, fields, farmyards and the bog. Special thanks to the parishioners who assisted with a tidy up, weeding and sweeping at St Michael's Church last week. Repair of the masonry over the sanctuary window at St Stephen's and the replacing of slates takes place next week. Maith sibh!

Please speak with me after Mass or phone me if a relation or an elderly neighbour would appreciate a house visit on the First Friday of the month. RMcC

The Journey So Far

Irish
Synodal
Pathway

When a major initiative is discussed for years, people naturally begin to wonder if anything is actually happening, and can feel disconnected. However, in 2021 and 2022, the synodal journey started right at our parish doors when thousands of people across Ireland participated, through a local consultation process, in sharing perspectives about what was working and what was broken in the Church. Those local conversations became diocesan reports, which helped shape global input. Last autumn, delegates from every Irish diocese met in Kilkenny to propose specific national priorities based on that feedback. Read more: www.dioceseofmeath.ie/synod

Some “fridge door” wisdom – worthy of King Solomon in today's First Reading:
There was an important job to be done and EVERYBODY was sure that SOMEBODY would do it. ANYBODY could have done it, but NOBODY did it. SOMEBODY got angry about the situation because it was EVERYBODY's job. EVERYBODY thought ANYBODY could do it, but NOBODY realized that EVERYBODY couldn't do it. It ended up that EVERYBODY blamed SOMEBODY when NOBODY did what ANYBODY could have done!
